Our Pledge to You

Hillcrest Baptist School will provide for your child/children a quality education in a Christian environment by a dedicated, caring faculty and staff. Bible will be taught daily to include memorization of verses. Emphasis will be placed on basic skills of language arts (reading, English, spelling, and writing) and mathematics. Christian doctrine, moral values, patriotism, citizenship, courtesy, respect for others, and responsibility of one's behavior will be an important part of this educational setting.

We promise to keep you, the parent, informed through weekly papers, telephone calls, deficiency reports, report cards and conferences at either teacher's or parent's request. The Instruction in our classrooms will be in a safe, controlled environment where limits are established and understood.
